

Mary I. Elliott
Daughter of a Trinidadian
War Bride
Aquitania
March of 1945

I came with my mother (a warbride). She was married in England in 1941 to my father who was in the Canadian army. My mother was in England to train as a nurse but was from Trinidad, West Indies. My parents were happily married for 63 years and died in 2003 in Ottawa.