

Bernice Currie
English War Bride
Britannic
May 24, 1945

I landed at Pier 21 on May 24th 1945, and proceeded by train to Truro, Nova Scotia, where my husband's family met me. My husband was still in Germany with the North Nova Scotia Highes. When he returned to Canada on August 15th 1945 we made our home in Truro. In 1958 he rejoined the military. Oromocto, New Brunswick is now and has been my home since 1962, I have been a widow since 1984.

A few years ago I joined the New Brunswick War Brides Club in Fredericton. I am a veteran having served in the Royal Air Force from 1942 to 1945, two weeks before I sailed to Canada.
