

Mary Gilliert
English War Bride
Queen Mary
June 16, 1946

My husband Cedric Gilliert and his two brothers passed through Pier 21 in 1945 when they returned to Canada.
They were in the Canadian Forces in Europe. My oldest son and I passed through Pier 21 when we arrived in Halifax, June 16, 1946 on the Queen Mary. It was a momentous time in our lives. My husband's family have been in Canada for many generations. It is a wonderful country. We have three sons with families.
