

Olive H. Ripley
English War Bride
Letitia
April 30, 1946

My reasons for coming to Canada - I am a war bride. My recollections of the ship Letitia - seasick mostly. The landing was fine - we were put in some kind of a hanger. I stood under the letter E waiting for my luggage then went on a bus. I think to the train station. Oh my, what a long trip to Sask; we thought we would never get there.

Yes - I love Canada. I am proud of being a Canadian; although at the beginning I was terribly homesick. I have been married to my Canadian R.C.A.F. Air Gunner for 53 years. I belong to the Sask. War Brides Association and the Royal Canadian Legion.
