

Maria Szychowski
Belgian Immigrant
Fairsea
December 4, 1951

CANADA'S IMMIGRATION MUSEUM
PIER 21

My parents arrived in Halifax in 1951 and then they went to Québec City because they can speak French. There were living in Belgium. My father is a Polish and my mother is a Slovakian.
They arrived with two children. Canada for them was hope for the future.