I know that my late dad arrived somewhere in Canada round that time listed above, but where he arrived I do not know. I know that it was on the East Coast, and he was sent by rail out to Saskatchewan or Alberta. From there he made his way to Manitoba. From there, he married, raised 3 children, and moved to Burlington. He had his own business, and also a couple of homes. He is now resting in the Catholic Cemetary in Burlington.
