

Clasina Kamps nee
Smit
Dutch Immigrant
Waterman
September 9, 1953

CANADA'S IMMIGRATION MUSEUM
PIER 21

After the war my dad wanted to immigrate to Canada with my mom and 8 children to give us a better life. My dad paid for all our passage with money he borrowed from his boss Karel Vekaden and he paid it back in full.

I was 10 years old and remember things so vividly. Until ten years ago I was so homesick for my relatives then my grandson was born then I felt at peace within myself. We came with just the clothes on our backs but we all turned out to be excellent Canadians and proud to be so thanks.