I transferred from the Royal Navy to the Royal Canadian Navy at the age of 18. The crossing was a bit stormy but not for a young, small ship trained, sailor on a relatively large luxury liner. To arrive in Halifax in the middle of winter can be a very sobering experience and, quite frankly, I think I was ready to turn around and go "home" after seeing the water front area of Halifax. I didn't, and have lived here happily ever after.
