

Leonhardt Karl
German Immigrant
Italia
Spring 1952

Leonhardt Karl (Knab)

Leo sailed from Hamburg on the ship Italia on May 23, 1952. He took the train from Halifax to London, Ontario. He was looking for his sister, Hilda, who had arrived in Canada as a refugee in 1948. She was working at Westminster Hospital in London.

Leo began working with City Gas in May of 1952 and was transferred to Guelph (Union Gas) upon a promotion in 1958. He served in various capacities at Union Gas until his retirement in 1992.
