

Elfriede Sperber
Immigrant
Fairsea
December 5, 1951

I was in Halifax in July for the Tall Ships and dropped in at your place. So here is my little story. The young man took a copy of my landing card.

I arrived in Halifax on December 5, 1951. I came onboard the Fairsea. My fiance Wolfgang Sperber came to Canada on September 3, 1951 and landed at Quebec. He sent me the money for my ticket. He landed a job within a week. We had known each other for three years and planned to get married, which we did on December 27, 1951 in Toronto.

In 1957 we became Canadian citizens. We always loved Canada and raised our family here, a boy and a girl. By now we also have a grandson. Sadly my husband passed away on November 17, 1999. But life must go on.
