

Muriel Margaret
Clarke
Immigrant from Newfoundland
February 23, 1944

Muriel arrived as a year old infant in the arms of her parents, George F. Clarke and Norma Clarke.

Their vessel departed from St. John's, Newfoundland, and arrived at Pier 21 in Halifax on Feb. 23rd, 1944. It is likely that the ship was part of a naval convoy as it was war time.