

Harold G. Kelly
American WWII
Veteran
Queen Elizabeth
June 1944

Just thought you might like to know the following: As a young soldier in the United States Army I departed from New York on the Queen Elizabeth with approx. 17000 other soldiers bound for Europe in June of 1944. The Glenn Miller band [led by Ray McKinley] was on board and played for us. The trip was uneventful and the great ship sailed unescorted except for an occasional airplane that watched over us.
