My interest in your announcement was due to me passing through Canada from Vancouver Island by train to Halifax where I boarded the Ile de France for the final leg home after 3 ½ years as a British P.O.W. of the Japanese. I have written my book and collected my letters, and in doing so found one that I wrote just after sailing from Halifax. An un-named liner is printed at the top of the page and might have been intended to represent the Ile de France in war time without giving anything away.
