CANADA'S IMMIGRATION MUSEUM
PIER 21

I went through this Pier both going over to and returning from England. I travelled both ways on the Ile de France. On the return trip as we disembarked in Halifax, I was detailed for baggage handling for our squadron. There seemed to be an awful lot of people there when we came in, but I wasn't able to join in on any festivities. We just got right on the train and headed East. As I recall it seemed as if the train was just waiting for us and it left when we were all aboard.
